

NEWS IN NUMBERS

9%

The rise in antibiotic-resistant infections in England between 2017 and 2018. There were an estimated 60,788 infections in 2018, according to Public Health England – or 165 a day.

Antibiotic-resistant bloodstream infections rose by a third (32%) between 2014 and 2018.

→ The public are urged to always take their doctor's or pharmacist's advice and only take antibiotics when necessary

2 in 5

The number of 11- to 16-year-olds in Wales who have gambled in the past year. Of those who had gambled, 16.2% reported feeling bad as a result. Boys gambled more than girls, and fruit machines were the most popular habit most deprived areas in England have been hit with nearly 15% of all public health cuts in the past 5 years: almost £1 of every £7 cut. This is 6 times larger than in the 10 wealthiest places, which lost £1 in every £46.

The 10

Councils' public health budgets have been cut by £871.6m over the past 5 years

550,000 miles

The distance travelled by severely ill patients in England sent far from home for mental health treatment. It is equivalent to going around the world 22 times. The Royal College of Psychiatrists called for 100s more NHS mental health beds to help end this 'shameful' practice caused by a lack of provision in their own area

Every week, nurses in Wales give the NHS extra hours to the value of full-time nurses.

976

This reliance on nurses' goodwill contributes to stress, sickness, low morale and poor retention rates

£10m

The amount the NHS in Scotland will receive to help cope with winter pressures. The funding is in addition to the £6.3m allocated for unscheduled care

An only child is up to

7x

more likely to be obese than one with siblings, a US study suggests. In a group of 27 only children, 37% were obese, compared with 5% in a group of 41 with siblings

80+

The number of new mental health counsellors for students to be appointed over the next 4 years in Scotland.

£20m investment is being made to support the mental health of all college and university students

Find links to relevant reports and surveys highlighted in the news stories at bit.ly/CP_news_in_numbers